Oct. 30 Meeting Is Critical For Schools

Gives Ruling On Construction

The School Committee's only concern with new construction is the educational needs of the town.

That general ruling from Town Counsel Fredric S. O'Brien was quoted at the Charter Study Committee's session Oct. 17.

Chairman Harris N. Sanfilippo reported on his conversations with the town counsel thusly:

The School Committee, according to the general laws, does not have final approval of school construction; this is a right to be exercised by the town through the Selectmen, manager and building

The future of the town's secondary school construction program will obviously be at stake, when the Selectmen meet with the School Committee Wednesday, Oct. 30.

The 8 p.m. session has advance feature billing this week, in the light of a recent ruling by Town Counsel Fredric S. O'Brien that the School Committee does not have authority over any plans, except to provide educational specifications, which must be met.

He's expected to give more details on the ruling at next Wednesday's meeting.

Financial aspects of the secondary school program will also come under scrutiny, as members of the Finance Committee plan to attend the session.

Weather Prophets Cause Aching Backs Already

The prophets of gloom are having a field day, amid the pleasant, summer-time days and cool, invigorating evenings.

For, they say, "We'll pay for this nice weather... you bet we'll pay".

And how truly they may be forecasting winter conditions, no one really knows.

But many forecasters - and certainly plenty of amateurs - have been harking back to a similar season in 1947. Warm, summer conditions prevailed that year, too.

Fires were the bane of everyone's existence; they broke out everywhere, throughout the six-state New England area.

The drought was on the tip of every tongue; it is this year, too. And then winter struck.

And what a winter that was - breaking every local record since 1922.

The season started normally enough, with a few snow showers in November and part-way into December.

Then old Mother Nature - that persistent equalizer of precipitation - turned the bucket upside down.

All burning has been banned within the town - including backyard incinerators.

The Selectmen acted promptly Monday night to shut off the last avenue of danger, during the drought-produced fire menace. Although Gov. Peabody had closed woodlands, and banned fires, the Selectmen were requested to make the act official locally.

Fire Chief Henry L. Hilton urged that action be taken, so that all possible chances of accidental fire can be eliminated.

Believes Selectmen Should Plan For More Revenue

The Selectmen may well become the chief financial planners for the town, and as such, exercise policy control over residential, commercial, industrial and fiscal planning.

These were the major items under discussion at a meeting of the Charter Study Committee Oct. 17.

And those members present seemed generally agreed that the Selectmen should turn their attention towards policy decisions in the field of greater income - a broadened tax base to meet increasing demands on town funds. There was no final decision or recommendation; members merely expressed individual opinions on what the Board can do in this planning field.

Member Victor Mill Jr. expressed the concern of other members, when he noted that the very growth of the town brings with it "built-in" expenses - whether or not these are now listed on the capital expenditure plan. These must, he emphasized, be paid for, but greater income is required.

Thus, he suggested, the Selectmen could spend considerable time in planning for the future - how extra funds can be obtained, other than just increasing the tax rate each year.

Commercial and industrial growth are key answers to the problem, he felt. And he continued: Perhaps, as chief policy-makers for the town, the Selectmen could devote their attention to this necessary growth; as leaders of the community, townspeople would listen to the Selectmen more carefully and favorably than to other officials, and this might result in a more favorable attitude towards new industry and business.

Mr. Mill quoted a portion of the original "charge" given the Committee, as justification for Committee recommendations in this direction. The "charge" asked for recommendations as to possible "changes of emphasis" in policy-making functions.

He expressed personal sentiments that the town has "an excellent Board of Selectmen" and a "fine town manager" and that the manager-selectmen form of government is "well settled down now".

Thus it would be possible for the Selectmen to look to different areas, instead of continuing to share administrative problems with the manager.

In general, it has been explained that at the beginning of a Selectmen-manager relationship, all individuals involved were new to their positions; the Selectmen and manager had to work closely together in all areas of government. Now, it has been stated, this period of transition is over.

Residential Planning?

Member Howell M. Stillman, in agreeing with Mr. Mill, suggested that the Selectmen also should take close looks at plans for water, drainage and sewer extensions - contained in subdivision plans - before these are acted on by the Planning Board.

Mr. Stillman referred to a "failure to exercise powers of the policy-making function" and commented "more forward planning is needed". He explained that a "pretty good" capital expenditures program is available. But he suggested that all areas of planning should get the Selectmen's attention "so people know where to look for responsible leadership".

Business Growth

Various possibilities should be investigated, as far as the town's tax base is concerned, in Mr. Mill's opinion. He suggested that an examination of the relationship between commercial, industrial and residential taxes over the past 25

Time ran out before the Browns could score. The Colts stormed back in the third period to score on a 60 yard end-around run by Ricky White. The try for the extra point failed and the stage was set for the dramatic finish. Dick Hatch and Steve Gessing starred for the Browns in defeat while Jimmy Volker aided by the White and Chamberlain combination for the Colts.

The Shawsheen Patriots took over the League lead with a 27 to 6 win over the Indian Ridge Packers. Marc Goulet was the big gun for the Patriots, scoring on an eight yard run and picking up two extra point tries. Other Patriot touchdowns were scored by Ron Creeley on a 30 yard run after a pass interception, by Doug Towne on a two yard plunge, and by Randy Towne, who also added an extra point. The hard fighting Packers came back to score in the fourth quarter on a 20 yard pass play from Don Pattullo to Dave Lynch. Dick Roy aided the Packer cause with a 30 yard run in the first quarter. Don Pattullo was outstanding on defense for the Colts, while Jack Kane stood out on defense for the Patriots.

At the midway mark in the double round-robin League schedule, the Patriots lead with a record of two wins and one tie. The Colts are in second place with two wins and one loss. The Browns have one win, one loss, and one tie while the Packers have suffered three losses.

Next Sunday's contests will match the Browns vs the Patriots and the Packers vs the Colts.

PLANNING FALL SALE - Members of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority will be selling Christmas wrappings and decorations during the coming season. Plans for the fund-raising activity were made at a recent meeting at the home of Mrs. Robert Kitson on Haggett's Pond rd. During an informal social hour, Mrs. Arthur Seikunas, seated, poured. Standing at left is Mrs. Fred Kydd, publicity chairman and, at right, Mrs. Kitson.

Seals Available For Early Mail

Are you sending Christmas mail overseas?

The Essex County Health Association, whose normal Christmas Seal mailing takes place in mid-November, has advance sheets of the cheerful Seals, for those County residents who wish to use them.

Executive Director Mrs. Barbara G. Flagg reminds all residents, who may have Christmas parcels going into the mail between Nov. 1 and Nov. 20, that Seals are available.

Interested residents may write or call for their Seals to the Essex County Health Association, 222 Cabot st., Beverly; or they may request Seals early from their local Christmas Seal Chairman.

Christmas cards destined for members of the Armed Forces, their families and for civilian employees overseas - actually for all who receive mail via an Army Post Office - must also be mailed by mid-November if they are to be received by Christmas.

"In the past," Mrs. Flagg explained, "many families have wanted Christmas Seals for their early holiday mailing. Thus we are ready to provide the Seals, at the request of any individual in our area."

Baptist Youth Plan Rally

The Andover Baptist Senior Youth will meet at the Baptist Church at 6 p.m. Sunday to go in a body to The Free Christian Church for the Reformation Sunday service at 6:15.

The speaker on this occasion will be The Rev. William T. Hell Sr., of the Lutheran Church in America.

Next Sunday, the Baptist Youth Fellowships will be hosts to an Andover-wide Youth Rally, when the guest speaker will be Tony Romeo, star right end of the Boston Patriots.

committee.
Only the educational needs are the responsibility of the Committee; as long as these are met, the type of building, how it is laid out, and other details of its construction, are to be decided by the town.

The School Committee would present its educational needs to the town, as a means of persuading the voters to appropriate money for a school - and that seemingly ends the Committee's responsibility as far as planning and building are concerned.

The town counsel ruled that the general laws control the situation, if they are in conflict with the town manager charter. Thus a sentence in the charter referring to School Committee approval of plans for a new structure is not valid, according to the report.

Study Committee member Howell
M. Stillman voiced his belief that this must also refer to school sites - that the School Committee would not be concerned with the choice of sites for schools if requests. There was no legal ruling on this item, according to the chairman.

To Hold Program On Chalk Drawing

The Rev. Roger W. Palmquist will present a program of chalk drawing Wednesday evening at 8 in the United Church. His subject will be "Speaking of Love".

This program is being arranged by the social committee of the Church and is open to any interested persons over the age of 12.

Following the program there will be a social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert T. Warner and son, Craig, of High st. have recently returned from an extended vacation in Naples, Fla. During their stay, they visited relatives in Tampa.

To Begin Season Hockey Association

The Andover Hockey Association will begin its 1963-'64 season
Sunday, Nov. 10, at the skating rink at Phillips Academy, at 2 p.m.

All boys who are 12 years of age as of Aug. 1, 1963 and not over 15 years of age as of Aug.
1, 1963 are invited to register.
All boys in this age group are asked to bring their skates to the first meeting.

All other boys, six through 11 years of age as of Aug. 1, 1963 may register Nov. 10th; but skating for these boys will start Nov. 16.

Church Men To Meet Nov. 21

The first of three annual meetings of the Men's Club, of the Andover Council of Churches, will be held Nov. 21 at the West Parish Church.

Albert O. Wilson of Lexington will speak to the men on the subject "Qualitative Christianity".

George Ainscow and Selectman
William Stewart are co-chairmen of the affair.

FAMILY SUNDAY

Family Sunday will be observed at the Free Christian Church Sunday morning, Oct. 27, at 10:15 a.m. Church School will not be held on that day and all children are invited to sit with their parents during the Worship Service.

The Rev. J. Allyn Bradford will deliver a sermon centered around home and family, which will be simple enough for even the youngest to comprehend.

VITAL MEETING NEXT WEDNESDAY

The Taxpayers Association will be represented, having asked for a chance to review planning to date.

Members of the Charter Study Committee also are planning to attend - that group has been investigating the role of the School Committee within the framework of the charter, and has talked at length about the possibility that the School Committee is exceeding its authority in having schematic drawings of a new high school prepared.

Interest in the open meeting - scheduled for the superintendent's office at Central School - has been heightened over recent weeks.

At a Selectmen's meeting a few weeks ago, Selectman William Stewart insisted that the Board be given all detailed information about alternatives, plans and any other data concerning the school construction program. He, too, questioned whether the School Committee has authority to have plans drawn.

5TH BIRTHDAY FOR RUSSELL ST. AMAND

A birthday party was held Monday afternoon in honor of the fifth birthday of Russell St. Amand, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard St. Amand of Oak st.

The children played games and were served refreshments. Attending were Bruce and Michael Lespesa, Douglas Spencer, William Weaver and Richard Rodman, Randall, Roger, Robert and Russell St. Amand.

Attended Seminar About Automation

Miss Agnes V. Dugan, Mrs. Marjorie O'Dowd, Miss Margaret O'Riordan and Miss Jo-Ann Samra of the Business Education Department of Andover High School attended the I.B.M. Automation Seminar at The Andover Institute of Business Oct. 8-9.

The theme of the meeting was "The Educator's Responsibility to the Student and to the Business Community."

Educators were introduced to the teaching techniques and automated procedures required in the development of skill in the operation of data processing machines.

The two-day program was very well organized and proved highly successful.

YOUNG IN HEARTS

On Wednesday, Oct. 30th the "Young in Hearts" will meet at the Free Church at 2 p.m. for the purpose of enjoying informal fellowship with others who are past 60 years of age. Light entertainment will be offered and refreshments will be served. Mrs. Helen Burnham of Chestnut ct. may be contacted by those who wish more information.

And to aid homeowners, who have been raking leaves only to have them scattered again, the Selectmen have ordered the Dump opened next Sunday.

Town Manager Thomas E. Duff agreed to have someone in attendance to direct operations at the municipal facility.

In many areas of town, the leaves are two feet or more deep in the gutters and present a fire menace themselves.

VISITED LIBRARY

The following children, with their mothers, visited the Ballardvale branch library, where they met the librarian, Mrs. William MacCausland, who welcomed them and registered them for the Littlest Listeners: Barbara Norris, David Norris, Brenda Nason, Scott Nason, Ellen Salach, Susan Salach, Chris Chase, Maureen Eldred, Kathy Acosta, Sandra Young and Cynthia Young.

The home medicine cabinet provides a great source of relief for many ailments, but it can be a source of grief if it is unwisely maintained with a small amount of grief.

Unfortunately, some people hold poisonous articles with a reach of small, curious minds. Then, too, there is always the likelihood that an adult will be less or accidentally pick up a wrong bottle and we have makings of an unfortunate accident.

If there are youngsters in the household, be careful when you store drugs, candy-coated pills and household poisons. As adults, make it a practice to label carefully when seeking relief in the medicine cabinet.

It is a good idea, also, to make it a practice to take your prescriptions to SHAWSHEEN PHARMACY, where prescriptions are a specialty - not a sideline. For your medical needs depend on SHAWSHEEN PHARMACY, 100 Shawsheen Square. Free prescription delivery.

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

Argument Over Meanings

All the hubbub over who is responsible for school construction planning and building is, to us, a matter of semantics.

Quite probably the law is clear — town officials other than the School Committee have this responsibility.

But it is also clear that the governing body of the school system has sole authority to establish educational requirements.

Thus the School Committee is having "schematic drawings" made, so that cost estimates can be determined. This is a necessary prelude to town meeting action, when the ultimate cost of the project must be discussed and acted on.

Whether or not the "schematic drawings" are actually plans, and thus are being authorized by the wrong town agency, is almost incidental to the fact that the drawings are needed.

Logically, this stage of the planning belongs with the School Committee. The architect is attempting to devise a way to house the number of students who will be attending the school; he is trying to accommodate the number of rooms and other facilities required by the educational specifications within the confines of a building that can be afforded by the town.

To turn this step of the planning over to any other group in town would be a practical impossibility, from an operating point of view.

It is clear to us that schematic drawings are not working plans; once town meeting has appropriated funds, if it does, then all the other town agencies can take over and complete the project.

This would seem to be a logical and legally-proper way to proceed, providing the distinction between schematic drawings and working plans is kept in mind.

Watch For This Report

One of the items under active consideration by a sub-committee of the Charter Study group concerns the receipt and inspection of supplies, merchandise and equipment.

This is an excellent opportunity to find out whether proper control procedures are followed by town officials.

It is just as important — perhaps more vital — to be certain that full value is received as it is to prepare adequate specifications and purchase orders.

This can be particularly true when large items of equipment are concerned, and the specifications have been detailed and complicated.

The results of this portion of the study will be received with great interest.

Down the Years with The Townsman

NOVEMBER
3 OPEN HOUSE AT YOUR LIBRARY, 3:30-5:30 o'clock; at 4 p.m. Guest speaker.

Littlest Listeners
Ballardvale Littlest Listeners have their opening meeting Thursday, Oct. 24 at 10 a.m. in the branch library room, Mrs. MacCausland is in charge of the group. Two weeks ago there was a registration morning and children in the Ballardvale area were registered for the story hours. This past Wednesday, the first of the Andover groups met in the Memorial Hall Library for their program with Miss Russell. This group is known as the Squirrels. Next Thursday, Oct. 30 at 10 o'clock, the second group, the Teddy Bears, will meet for the first time. Mothers in both groups have been notified of the program to which their child is invited. At present, registrations are closed in both Andover groups.

All Littlest Listener groups open their programs at 10 a.m. and close promptly at 10:45 o'clock. Mothers remain with the children until it is a comfortable experience for the child to be left with others of his own age group. Each group meets once in two weeks.

Great Books
The reading for the next Great Books meeting, Oct. 29, is to be a selection of the discourses of Epictetus. This group meets every other Tuesday at the library at 7:30 o'clock, and welcomes new members at all times.

Story Hours
Thursday afternoon, Oct. 31, the first of the autumn story hours for boys and girls will be held at the library. The young people are asked to be there by 3:35 o'clock, as story hour begins promptly at that time. This will be a true Halloween program, called "Ghosts and Goblins." One of the stories to be told will be "The Tinker And The Ghost." All young people are invited.

Open House
The trustees and staff of the Memorial Hall Library extend an invitation to all the friends of the library to the annual Open House, Sunday afternoon, Nov. 3, from 3:30 to 5:30 o'clock. At four, George E. Brown of the English Department of Bradford Junior College, will be guest speaker. His subject will be "Reading Contemporary Poetry."

Mr. Brown joined the Bradford faculty in 1954. As a member of the English Department he teaches courses in the English novel, contemporary poetry and creative writing, as well as a survey course in English literature. He considers himself an "amateur" poet and novelist, in addition to his teaching career.

As in the past, there will be displays of the autumn books on tables throughout the main reading room. Here will be some of the finest suggestions for planning a winter's reading program, and guests will be given an opportunity to make reserves for those books that attract them. This year there will be a table of children's books in the adult reading room. Christmas gift suggestions for the entire family will be found on special lists, available to all.

Light refreshments will be served. Be sure to save the date!

U.N. Week
There are still two more days during which groups may borrow the audio-visual aids on United Nations subjects at the Memorial Hall Library. There are filmstrips with captions or scripts as well as the two sound films, "Journey To Understanding" and "Bozo's Adventures In Asia." These each run for about 27 minutes. Booklists of suggested readings on the United Nations and its agencies may be picked up at the main reading room or in the Ballardvale branch. Poster material may be had for those wishing to make use of it.

What Our Readers Say—

To the Editor of the Townsman:
"There is the other side of the Supreme Court's decision as concerns elimination of any formal opening prayer in public schools."

"It bears consideration, because it does not appear to be as thoroughly understood, and certainly not as often voiced, as it needs to be. I hope that The Townsman will publish this other view, also, so that its readers, instead of feeling that somehow God is trying to be barred from public schools, may understand that it is the object of this decision that God is welcomed there with even greater consideration and understanding."

"Sometimes, in the zeal to be good Americans, we see the inclination to confuse the issue by attempting to group Christianity and Americanism together and, thusly, overlooking and violating the rights and privileges of minority groups."

"If there should be just one child who could be unfairly affected or unduly indoctrinated by someone else's prayer then, surely, we have no right to foist it upon him nor to humiliate him by setting him apart because he cannot join in our prayer. The dignity of the individual, although a pathetically admonishing one, is a right that almost all religions aspire to and our own Democracy demands."

"All who wish to join with others in prayer are free to do so at home or in the church of their choice. These decisions are the right and the responsibility of the parents in the home."

Camp Fire Girls

The Merrimack Valley District of Camp Fire Girls held its annual Fly-up Ceremony Friday evening, Oct. 18, at St. Michael's Hall in North Andover.

Members of the third grade Bird groups from the district flew up by their fathers and sisters Camp Fire Girls, in an impressive ceremony before parents and friends. Blue Bird flying up from Andover were Allison Campbell, Jane Carr, Debbie Carrier, Pam Caverly, Lois Clark, Georgia Doherty, Paul Henderson, Debra Klempa, Kim Nigrelli, Janet Schirner and Alice Wade, whose leader is Sherman Carr. Also flying up were Kimberlee Brown, Valerie Deidre Brucatto, Patricia Doherty, Brenda Hansen, Cynthia May, Jacqueline Peek, and Suzanne Trumbore, whose leader is William Brown. Mary Lou Car Horizon Club Girl from the district, directed the singing.

Additional news of Camp Fire Girls in the district came from the fifth grade group at Central School, who reported they were on a hike and picnic through Parker State Forest Oct. 16. The girls collected dried weeds, leaves and mosses for their nature study. Girls making the hike were Rob Brown, Elizabeth Connor, Meredith Drieman, Karen Greco, Marsha Hall, Klye Knipe, Patricia Morin, Ann O'Rourke and Margaret Romeo. They were accompanied by their leader, Mrs. Ward A. Romeo.

Friday - tomato vegetable salad, tuna salad roll, midnight chocolate cake, chocolate frosting, milk.

Wants Bassett As Engineer

A major change in the organization of two town departments, combining their duties, was given impetus Monday night by Selectman William Stewart.

He urged consideration of a plan to appoint Water-Sewer Department Supt. Donald Bassett as town engineer, while retaining services as the head of his department.

This can be done, Mr. Stewart emphasized, by adding an assistant for Mr. Bassett.

Consideration of the proposal was held up by the Board, at Selectman Philip K. Allen noted that the town charter requires town manager to recommend appointments.

Mr. Stewart agreed to hold plan up, but stressed the importance of considering it fully.

Under his proposal, Mr. Bassett would be a registered engineer, handling the work of both his department and the engineering department. The assistant would take up most of the details, however.

An immediate comment from Selectman Paul W. Cronin concerned the present job descriptions — whether or not, if man can do both jobs, the present descriptions should be modified.

He also wondered whether man can possibly handle the combined duties.

Town Manager Thomas E. also suggested looking into problem; he also commented such a suggested program would have to meet Mr. Bassett's approval.

In proposing Mr. Bassett for now-vacant engineer's job, Stewart praised him for his ability and knowledge of the town, and his dedication to town service.

He suggested that it would be very difficult to obtain the services of a registered engineer with same qualifications and background.

In an allied move, slightly earlier in the meeting, Mr. Stewart suggested adoption of a policy to give town employees preference when qualified to move up another town position.

Mr. Duff said this is being followed already, and Mr. Stewart withdrew his motion.

Discussed Work With Director

Recreation came in for its share of recognition at the Charter Study Committee meeting last week. Sub-committee member Stanley Lindsay reported on a meeting with Recreation Director Leslie H. "new".

Mr. Bartow, he reported working towards a long-range program for the town. He was reported to have told the sub-committee that any community over 15 population requires full-time recreation leadership.

Appointments See The Teacher

The next PTA meeting of Sanborn school will take a different flavor from the usual of meeting.

Individual parent-teacher conferences have been set up for the parents to learn about child's progress to the present time.

Conferences have been scheduled for Nov. 6 and Nov. 13 in evening and notices will be sent home to inform parents the exact time of their appointments.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Come Lovejoy rd. visited Sunday the Sister of the Holy Family Bedord and Framingham.

Guild Held Successful Party

St. Augustine's School Guild held a very successful bridge party at the Yankee Doodle restaurant Tuesday, Oct. 15.

Two hundred and fifty people attended the affair, helping to put over the drive for funds for maintenance of the car used by the Sisters of Notre Dame, who staff the school.

Co-chairmen were Mrs. George Farrell of Greenwood rd. and Mrs. Richard Homewood of Mary Louin. The winner of the door prize - dinner for two at the Yankee Doodle - was Mrs. Robert King. Mrs. Hans Wolf won the big prize of the evening, a handsome Danish-style bridge table and chairs.

Mrs. Stewart Anderson and Mrs. Edward B. Walsh were co-chairmen of the Prize Committee; decorations were in charge of Mrs. Richard E. Gammon and Mrs. James Stamas.

Parking Survey To Get Underway

Forty-nine students from Merrimack College, representing 12 states, will help to conduct an extensive study of Andover's parking facilities starting Monday, Oct. 28.

The students represent two fraternities and dormitory residences, who are participating in the study as a service to the college and the community. The two fraternities are Sigma Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Theta.

Joseph Lawlor, director of development for Merrimack College, is coordinating the students' participation in the study, which is being sponsored by the Andover Board of Trade and the Andover Planning Board, Gordon Brigham, a member of the firm of Adams, Howard & Greeley, planning consultants to the Andover Planning Board, is supervising the study with Eugene Bernardin Jr., chairman of the ABT's Parking Committee.

The study and survey is expected to take one week of field work to complete and will consist of two parts, according to Chairman Bernardin. The first phase will be a daily turn-over count of all available curb and lot parking spaces, both metered and un-metered, in the central business district of Andover. The second phase will consist of a "interview-type" survey of parkers and shoppers, to determine where they park in relationship to where they intend to shop.

After the field work is completed the Andover Institute of Business will tabulate the results of the study on the school's I.B.M. machines as a service to the town.

World Community Day Program

The United Church Women of Andover invite all interested women to attend World Community Day Friday, Nov. 1, in Fellowship Hall at West Parish Church at 8:30 p.m.

The Rev. David R. Ladre of Methuen will speak on "Racial Justice - Now". Mr. Ladre participated in the Freedom March in Washington this fall. There will be a question and answer period.

An appropriate musical program will be presented by Mrs. Bruce Van Blair, and refreshments will be served by the Couples Club of West Parish Church.

Investigating Method Of Receiving Supplies

The Charter Study Committee is exploring the methods used by the town in accepting merchandise it purchases.

Briefly, the group is looking into these areas:

Who signs for supplies, or for items that have been out on bids?

Is there any inspection to make sure the items meet the specifications on which bids were based?

Member Raymond LaRosa is working on this sub-committee with Harold Cookson.

21 Strawberry Hill rd., became the bride of Donald Lee Gammon, 11 Avon st., Wakefield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald William Gammon of Miami, Fla., Saturday, Oct. 5 in St. Augustine's Church.

The 11 o'clock ceremony was performed by the Rev. James A. Wenzel, O.S.A., amidst a setting of gold and orange mums.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a gown of delustre satin and re-embroidered Alencon lace. A sabrina neckline, empire waistline, princess-styled skirt with a fullness of unpressed pleats in the back which terminated in a full chapel train was the styling of her gown. Her floor-length mantilla of imported illusion was edged with re-

The matron of honor was Mrs. Leo McCarthy of New York, sister of the bride, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Albert Damon of Andover, Mrs. Robert Watkinson of East Hampton and Miss Ellen Cuffe of Lynn. They were gowned in floor length dresses of gold taffeta with leaf headpieces to match and they carried cascades of leaves in fall shades.

The bride's mother wore a wine-colored sheath dress with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a blue sheath dress with beige accessories.

Douglas Gammon of Miami, Fla., was the best man and the ushers were George Heseltine of Andover, Leo McCarthy of New York and Robert Watkinson of East Hampton.

A reception was held at the Rolling Green Motor Inn with out-of-town guests from Florida, Pennsylvania, New Hampshire and Connecticut.

After a trip to the Pocono Mountains, Pa., the couple will reside at 11 Avon st., Wakefield.

The bride is a graduate of Andover High School, Boston Museum School of Fine Arts and Tufts University and is employed as an art teacher in the Wilmington school system.

The bridegroom was graduated from the University of Florida School of Advertising and Journalism, where he was a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity. He is employed at Colour Picture Publishers of Boston.

MRS. STEPHEN G. SWEDER
(Look Photo)

SWEDER - BROWN

St. Robert Bellarmine Church, Sunday, Oct. 6, was the setting for the wedding of Miss Virginia Anne Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Ainscow, 59 Lovell rd., and Charles D. Brown of Andover, N. J., and Stephen G. Sweder, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen G. Sweder, 20 Border st., Lawrence.

The Rev. Francis L. Sullivan, pastor of the St. Robert Bellarmine Church, officiated before an altar adorned with white mums and snapdragons and ferns.

The bride, given in marriage to Mr. Sweder, wore a short-length gown of white taffeta, styled with a scoop neckline, a trimmed bodice and long sleeves.

Seed pearls and iridescent sequins were re-embroidered on the bodice. A pleated back panel, the neck to the end of the skirt, gave an illusion of a short train. Her shoulder-length veil of French illusion was attached to a comb of lace and seed pearls. She carried a cresent bouquet of white mums and stephanotis.

Miss Sharon L. Brown, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor, and Miss Martha Freeman of Andover was the bridesmaid.

The attendants were dressed alike in mint green taffeta, short gowns, fashioned with bateau neckline, bell skirts with two back panels from the neck to the end of skirt. They had pillbox hats with short veils and carried cresent bouquets of mums in shades of gold and rust.

Dennis Sweder, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man, and the ushers were Ronald Brown, Jr., James Buote of Lawrence and James Salvanti of Lawrence.

The mother of the bride wore a forest green silk crepe dress, toast hat and accessories, and wore a corsage of russet yellow mums and roses.

The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of iridescent material in an off-white color; black hair accessories, and a corsage of white mums and roses.

A reception was held at the bride's home with many out-of-town guests present. Following the trip to Florida, the couple will make their home in Milton, Mass.

The bride is a graduate of Andover High School and the Institute of Beauty. She has been employed at Hilda's Beauty in Andover.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Andover High School.

How Much Does A Dream Cost?

You really can't put a price tag on that wonderful moment when the house you've dreamed about for so long finally becomes a reality. But money does make a moment like this possible.

If you have dreams of buying or building and need financial assistance (and who doesn't?) we hope you will drop in here at Andover Savings soon, and talk over your plans with one of our experienced home loan advisors.

The majority of folks who have taken this step are now enjoying one of life's greatest pleasures
- the freedom, fun and comfort that goes with home ownership. You can too!

Foreign Film Series To Raise Dollars

Peter Sellers, well known British satirist, will star in the first of a series of foreign films, sponsored by the Andover Chapter American Field Service, Friday evening, Nov. 8, at Andover High School. As a result of a successful fund drive last year, Gunnar Solbraa, a student from Oslo, Norway, is spending a year in Andover, living in an American home and attending Andover High School. The goal of the American Field Service Chapter this year is to have a student from a foreign country in Andover again next year and to send an Andover student abroad. Interviews are now going on among Andover High School students to select one qualified to be Andover's representative in a foreign country.

"Battle of the Sexes" with Peter Sellers, is the British satire to open the series at 8 p.m. Nov. 8. A delightful French comedy, "Picnic on the Grass", is the second offering March 13 and the third picture, a top-notch Russian classic, "A Summer to Remember", will be shown April 10. Tickets may be obtained from anyone of the members of the

Catholic Youth Week Coming

Many activities, both spiritual and social, will highlight Catholic Youth Week, Oct. 27-Nov. 3.

Preparations for the week have been going on in St. Augustine's CYO for some time, and the following schedule of activities is planned:

Sunday, at 10:05, Mass will be celebrated in the Lower Church for all CYO members. That evening at 5, the installation of officers and reception for new members will take place in Church.

An entertainment and refreshments are planned for later in the evening, in St. Augustine's School hall.

Monday through Friday of the special week, there will be a special Mass at 6:45, and all CYO members are urged to attend.

Saturday, Nov. 2, the final event of the week is scheduled - a dance which includes selection of a king and queen.

Obituaries...

EDWARD O'SHEA

Edward O'Shea, year-old son of Edward and Micheline O'Shea, 7, of Wood dr., died Oct. 17.

John T. Batal, medical examiner, attributed death to cerebral anoxemia due to charcoal inhalation.

It was explained that the child's lungs were coated with ashes and, though he was breathing, his lungs were unable to supply oxygen to the brain's blood supply. The child had accidentally tipped over a charcoal grill about 3:30. His mother found the unconscious lad, face covered with ashes, and called the fire department for aid. Fire attendants worked over the boy on the way to the hospital, and a team of doctors continued work until 6 p.m.

Mass of the Angels was offered for the boy in St. Augustine's Church Friday, Oct. 18. Burial was in a Cambridge Cemetery.

M. HENDERSON

Mark Henderson, 70, a native of Andover, died Oct. 17, at the Exeter, N. H. hospital. He had lived in this community until six years ago, when he moved to Kingston, N. H.

Mr. Henderson was a retired carpenter, and was a member of the Carpenter's District Council, AF of L, Local 67.

A veteran of World War One, he held membership in American Legion Post 8, Haverhill Barracks 212, Veterans of World War One, and Kingston Veterans Club. He was also a member of the Lion's Club in Kingston and the Lawrence Canoe Club.

Mr. Henderson was a member of St. Matthew's Lodge, A.F. and A.M.

Surviving are two sisters, Miss Beatrice H. Henderson of Andover and Mrs. Edith Manchester of Rumford, R. I.; two brothers, Wallace W. Henderson of Ludlow and Eugene R. Henderson of Andover; also several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Sunday, Oct. 20, at the H. L. Farmer and Son Funeral Home in Haverhill, with the Rev. Robert C. Robb, pastor of the Kingston, N. H., Congregational Church, officiating.

Burial was in Spring Grove Cemetery.

In the 90 average or better group are: Claire Cochran 102, Sharon Lyons 93, Cyl Nicoll 93, Deb Heselton 92, Tess Smeltzer 91, Midge Cairns 91, Donna Starr 90. The league has 33 members and boasts of almost 100 percent attendance every league night.

It's still a close one for team standings in the first round of the Andover Men's Towne league, with the Town Grill and the No Names tied for first place at 15-5. The Andover Rec team and the Home Imp. Constr. are tied at 14-6, only one point out of first place. As things usually run in threes, a third tie between Raytheon and the Nite Owls exists for third position, with both claiming 10-10. Morrissey's Taxi is next at 9-11, then Anchors Aweigh with 7-13, followed by Shawsheen 4-16, and then the Ramblers with 2-18.

The Pee Wee league has three teams all bunched up in first place with 20-4. They are the Candle Setups, Candle Mites, and the Candle Pins. Next in line are the Candle Strikers and the Candle Hilo's, both vying for second place. The Candle Spares and Candle Mets are in third, Candle Balls are fourth, Candle Woods fifth, Candle Scorers sixth, and the Candle Lanes and Candle Lobs are the strongest teams in the league, as they are at the bottom holding the rest of the teams up.

SUCCESSFUL SUPPER

The supper served by the United Church Senior High Youth Fellowship was a marked success.

A spaghetti meal was served with all the fixings. The theme was "A Night in Italy". Mrs. George Nason was the chairman and Mrs. James Letters had charge of the supper preparations. All members of the fellowship assisted. These funds will make it possible for the fellowship to attend a retreat Oct. 25-27 at Peterboro, N. H.

MY ACHING BACK! Tax Collector James P. Christie got to be an expert at shoveling snow, back in the winter of 1947-'48, as shown by this tremendous mound of snow next to his garage at 18 Pasho st. Many weathermen are comparing this fall with the fall of 1947, and some expect the same kind of winter.

WEATHER PREDICTIONS BY GLOOMY PROPHETS

Starting Dec. 23, and winding up March 2, that winter of 1947-'48 dumped 112 3/4 inches of snow on Andover, Essex Co. records were shattered - 100 inches was the previous record for the area.

And most of the snow, beginning two days before Christmas, stayed on the ground until spring.

The Townsman reported snowfalls of 14 inches Dec. 23, 19 inches Dec. 26, 10 inches Jan. 2; a report in the issue of Jan. 8, 1948 called amazed attention to a total accumulation of 43 inches in 11 days.

By Jan. 29, the snowfall stood at 84 1/4, following the 14th snow storm of the season.

Local fuel oil dealers were formed into a committee by the officials of the town, and they urged restraint in the use of oil because of shortages.

Wild life was reported in bad shape, with all possible supplies of winter food either eaten or covered with snow.

Town crews were constantly red-eyed from lack of sleep; the snow was almost more than they could move off the roads.

Officials of the town, particularly those concerned with finances, were worried about the cost of the removal. But all they could do was dig down into municipal coffers to pay for the work.

And probably worse of all was the weary, arm-tired homeowner, who had to heave all that snow, higher and higher, after each storm.

That's what the prophets think we're in for?

Oh! Our aching backs!

Bible Study Class At Free Church

A new adult Bible Study Class has been organized at the Free Christian Church under the direction of the Rev. J. Allyn Bradford.

The Class will begin by studying the "Parables", using the new United Church curriculum for adult study.

Included in the class thus far are Mr. and Mrs. Max Russell, Mrs. Hi Dong Chai, Mrs. Mary Edmonds, Mrs. Harry Meike, Mrs. Donald Williams and Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Newill. Others who are interested in joining the class are warmly invited to do so. The group meets on the first and third Tuesdays of the month at the Church at 8 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Spaulding of Portland, Me., were recently the guests of Gavin McGhee of Chester st.

Gala Party For Rocketeers

A gala Halloween party for the Rocketeers' Square Dance Class is planned for Friday, Oct. 25, at 8 p.m. at Andover Junior High School.

Co-chairmen of the party are Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Speyer of Longwood dr., and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Morasse of Methuen.

Appropriate decorations are being prepared by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fraser of Boutwell rd., Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lucier of Lucerne dr., Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Belloir of Andover st., as well as Mr. and Mrs. Earl Foster and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Thoren of No. Andover.

Paul Pratt, popular caller from Chelmsford, will call the steps and prizes will be awarded for the best costumes in various categories.

Two hundred and eighty members have been registered in the Beginners' Class since September. The Rocketeers Square Dance Club of Andover sponsors this wholesome adult activity with the cooperation of the Andover School Department. This will be the sixth session and the Class is now closed to new members with the exception of those who have received comparable instruction elsewhere that will enable them to keep up with the rest of the class.

General chairmen are Mr. and Mrs. Don P. Scott of Chestnut st., assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Ted Dulemba of Lowell, Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Garvey of No. Andover and Mr. and Mrs. William Mahar of No. Reading.

Dr. James F. Haggerty of Bethesda, Md., was recently visiting Mrs. T. S. Haggerty of Clark rd. and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin K. Haggerty and family of Andover st.

WHAT DID YOU DO FOR ANTIBIOTICS 25 YEARS AGO?

25 years ago you couldn't get antibiotics at any price. Now you could get tranquilizers, radioisotopes, polio vaccine, and a host of wonder drugs that are commonplace.

They do much to reduce the cost of illness. That's why
"Today's prescription is the biggest bargain in history."
